KILLS A SICK MAN.

Charles Cohagen Then Ends His Own Life.

Winchester, Ill., March 5.—Charles Cohagen late last night shot and killed T. H. Flynn, while the latter was ill in bed at his home. Cohagen then went to the home of his father and shot himself in the temple, dying instantly. The two men are supposed to have had a previous quarrel.

Rozum Adjudged a Murderer.

Grafton, N. D., March 5.—In the district court here Friday Joseph Rozum was convicted of the murder of Louis Starnan at Pisek, Walsh county, on the night of Jan. 27. Starnan and Rozum had some difficulty. Rozum shot Starnan, killing him instantly. He contended that the shooting was done in self-defense. The verdict was murder in the first degree, with the death penalty.

ATTACK PORT ARTHUR

JAPANESE WARSHIPS RENEW BOMBARDMENT OF THE RUSSIAN FORTRESS.

RUMOR OF HEAVY FIGHTING

BOTH SIDES SUFFER LOSS OF WARSHIPS IN A BATTLE OFF PORT ARTHUR.

TWO HUNDRED JAPS SAVED

BUT THE RUSSIANS ARE SAID TO HAVE GONE DOWN WITH THEIR WARSHIPS.

New York, March 5.—A special to the Herald from Tientsin says:

Port Arthur has been bombarded by Japanese ships at intervals for three days, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, first at fifteen kilometers distance from the forts and then at seven.

Cabling from Seoul, the correspondent of the New York Herald there says Horace N. Allen, United States minister to Korea, has thought it necessary to send a guard of marines to the American mines at Unsan, belonging to J. Sloot Fassett, which were reported on Feb. 27 to have been seized by Russian soldiers. Accordingly, sixty men have been sent to the spot, which is 120 miles north of Peking.

London, March 5.—On the strength of a statement made by a missionary, the Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Chronicle sends in a doubtful report that twenty-eight Japanese sailors landed at Tientsin, saying that their vessel had sunk as the result of an engagement with Russian warships, which also went down. No Russians were saved, but 200 Japanese were rescued by Chinese junks. This action is reported to have occurred between Port Arthur and the Miaotao islands.

JAPS MINED PORT ARTHUR.

Are Now Trying to Send Men There to Blow It Up.

Paris, March 5.—Telegraphing from Harbin, a correspondent of the Matin says a special staff of officers has started to Lake Baikal to meet General Kuropatkin.

The Central telegraph office here, the correspondent continues, will henceforth be closed to the public. The concentration of Chinese forces west of Mukden arouses suspicion, in spite of the repeated declarations of China's neutrality.

Cossacks are advancing into Korea, where the attitude of the natives toward them is very variable.

Colonel Tatsujire and five other Japanese officers who were arrested in Korea have been taken to Liaoyang.

The people here believe that Port Arthur was mined a long time ago by the Japanese, who are now trying to send there a few men who know the place well to blow it up.

The Russian cruisers Bayan and Diana received only slight injuries during the recent engagements with the Japanese.

LANDING TROOPS IN KOREA.

Japs Prepare for Immediate Advance to the North.

Vladivostok, March 5.—According to information received here, forty Japanese transports escorted by the entire naval fleet have been engaged in landing troops in Korea at Pusan and Chemulpo. It is estimated that fully 100,000 men have disembarked, and it is supposed that an immediate advance into Northern Korea is contemplated. From the fact that the Japanese fleet is thus employed it is felt that no immediate attack upon Vladivostok or Port Arthur will be made.

The landing of 2,500 Japanese at Songchin, Ulaksin Bay, on the East coast of Korea, has been confirmed.

There is a remarkable rumour abroad that a quantity of transport material, together with ninety tons of salt fish, have been discovered laid away in secret places in the neighborhood of Nakalaskov. They were apparently intended for use of the Japanese forces toward the end of the summer. The enrollment of volunteers is proceeding with enthusiasm at Vladivostok.

GENERAL PFLUG REPORTS.

All Is Quiet at Port Arthur and at Yinkow.

St. Petersburg, March 5.—The following dispatch, dated March 3, has been received from Major General Pflug, commanding the Russian forces at Port Arthur:

"All is quiet at Port Arthur and Yinkow."

"According to information given by eye witnesses a Japanese cruiser having three funnels lies near Chemulpo between islands, having recently sunk there."

A correspondent of the London Daily Mail on March 1 cabled from Chefoo that he saw a Japanese cruiser beached near Chemulpo.

LAMSDORFF TO RESIGN.

Russian Foreign Minister Reported to Be Anxious to Retire.

Paris, March 5.—Telegraphing from St. Petersburg, a correspondent of the Matin says that rumors that Foreign Minister Lamsdorff has repeated his request for retirement are persistently current in high circles.

M. Muraviev, the minister of justice, and M. Ivolosky, Russian minister to Denmark, are mentioned as possible successors to the foreign minister.

ATTITUDE OF GREAT BRITAIN.

Feeling in Russia Is Now Far More Tranquil Regarding It.

St. Petersburg, March 5.—There is high authority for the statement that Russian feeling is more tranquil regarding the attitude of Great Britain. The real reason of the visit to St. Petersburg of Count Benckendorff, Russian ambassador to Great Britain, while ostensibly to see his son off to the far East, was personally to assure his government of his belief that the suspicions harbored here concerning Japan's ally were ill founded and that Great Britain, although standing by the obligations of the Anglo-Japanese treaty, would not move unless compelled to do so by the entrance into affairs in the far East of a third power.

Count Benckendorff had a long interview with the czar as well as with Foreign Minister Lamsdorff and he convinced the authorities that Great Britain was acting in good faith. He conveyed also Great Britain's assurance that the Anglo-Japanese treaty contained no secret clauses and that it was not directed especially against Russia, its sole purpose being, according to the British authorities, the preservation of the balance of power in the far East which might be threatened by another coalition such as followed the Chino-Japanese war and which resulted in the exclusion of Great Britain in farther international settlement of far Eastern questions.

The British and French governments have reached a thorough understanding by which they have pledged mutual noninterference, and Russia feels more secure against European complications.

The more moderate tone of the British and Russian press during the past few days is also regarded as evidence of better understanding between the two governments.

BATTLESHIPS BOTTLED UP.

Cannot Get Past the Revizan at Port Arthur.

London, March 5.—Little change in the far Eastern situation is reported here. It is apparent that the Japanese are busily engaged in transporting their forces into Korea, and this work is being facilitated by the enforced inactivity of the navy.

According to the Sebastopol correspondent of the Daily Graphic, Admiral Skrydloff has learned privately from Port Arthur that the Russian battleship Reavizan lies in such a position as to block effectually the exit of battleships from the harbor, the passage being practicable only for cruisers.

The correspondent adds that Russia's new battleships now building on the Baltic will not be ready for active commission before the end of August.

The Japanese official who has charge of Japan's financial and commercial interests in England declares that his government foresaw the possibility of coal being declared contraband of war, and that it has been collecting large stores of Welsh steam coal for years, so that today it has a supply sufficient for the needs of the navy for years to come.

The recent Japanese elections resulted rather favorably to the ministerialists, without greatly altering the strength of political parties there. The returns are approximately, 139 constitutionalists, 96 progressives, 70 without party, and 83 members from small groups.

ONLY A QUESTION OF TIME.

Before Vladivostok Squadron Will Receive Attention of Japs.

Tokio, March 5.—It is evident that several vessels laden with coal, provisions and other contraband articles have recently effected the passage of Tsugaru strait and succeeded in reaching Vladivostok. Their exact number and names are unknown, but it is stated that they included British, Norwegian and German vessels. Two of them are said to have carried cargoes of Australian coal. Japan evidently refrained from making a special effort to prevent their passage and it is not improbable that she calmly permitted the delivery of the contraband, calculating that they would prove useful to herself at a later stage of the campaign. The Vladivostok squadron continues inactive, though it has an ample supply of coal and the ships are in good condition. It has evidently been instructed by the Russian government to remain close to Vladivostok batteries in preference to risking a fight in the open seas. It is declared to be only a question of time before the squadron will receive the attention of the Japanese navy.

RUSSIAN TROOPS RETREAT.

Those South of Anju Hustle Back to the Yalu River.

London, March 5.—In a dispatch from Tokio the correspondent of the Times says: "Russians recently were conveyed to Possiet Bay from Vladivostok, and crossed the Tumen river southward of Ungkwin and Heiyong."

"The Russian troops who hitherto have been south of Anju have retired toward the Yalu river."

"The martial law regulations published at Vladivostok Feb. 9 betray great solicitude with regard to provisions."

"The objections of France to Japan's obtaining the Seoul-Wiju railroad concession are met by the plea that the railroad is required for strategic purposes."

TO AWAIT BALTIC SQUADRON.

Admiral Wrenius Will Keep His Warships in the Mediterranean.

Port Said, Egypt, March 5.—Admiral Wrenius' squadron of Russian warships will leave these waters today for Cadiz, Spain, leaving the torpedo boat destroyers at Algiers. They will remain in the Mediterranean until June, awaiting the arrival of the Baltic squadron.

INSURRECTION IN ALBANIA.

Two Districts in Open Revolt and Turks Are Paralyzed.

London, March 5.—In a dispatch from Salonica, European Turkey, a correspondent of the Daily Mail says a fresh insurrection has broken out in Albania. The districts of Mitrovitza and Ipek are in open revolt and the Turkish authorities appear to be paralyzed.

STILL SOMEWHAT IRREGULAR.

Trade and Industry Hampered by Bad Weather.

New York, March 5.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade says trade and industry are still irregular, being active in favored sections, but hampered in others by the prolongation of winter weather, with its concomitants of delayed transportation, car shortages or floods. Southern trade advances, as heretofore, reveal sustained activity; southwestern reports show improvement, and Western dispatches are rather more optimistic, though the volume of business is not equal to a year ago in that part of the country, nor in the East, where wholesale and retail trade is backward. Among the industries reports indicate activity in iron and steel and prices of some grades of iron firm, but the iron ore situation is not yet settled, the coke supply is insufficient and a soft coal strike overhangs Western industry generally. The agricultural situation on the whole is one of great strength and a record breaking acreage will go into cotton.

Railway earnings reflect the most unfavorable winter in many years reporting on a decrease in gross of 5 per cent. The feeling is still that good weather would help to repair the backwardness of general business and be particularly helpful to building and other lines of outdoor work, in which operations are practically at a standstill.

ARGUES IN FAVOR OF REVISION.

Paris, March 5.—The speech of Attorney General Baudouin in favor of revision occupied the entire sitting of the criminal branch of the court of cassation Friday, upon the occasion of the second day's hearing of the Dreyfus revision case.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

No lives were lost in the recent heavy earthquake in Peru, and only slight property loss was sustained.

Robert Schulka, arrested at South St. Paul on the charge of stealing sheep, committed suicide in his cell, using a strap or belt.

Charles Neary of Milwaukee received a well-earned decision over Louis Long of Oakland, Cal., in a six-round bout at Milwaukee Friday night.

Fire Friday night destroyed the British-American hotel and three buildings adjoining at Halifax, N. S. Loss, $50,000. One fireman was killed.

Governor Dockery of Missouri granted a stay of execution until April 8 to James Brown, the Hawaiian, who was to have been hanged March 11 for murder.

Mail Carrier C. A. Harris was found by trappers in a snowdrift between Drummond and Two Harbors, Minn., so badly frozen that he may lose his hands and feet.

The Indiana Republican state committee Friday fixed the state convention for April 26 and 27 at Indianapolis. Resolutions were adopted endorsing President Roosevelt.

Nurses Leave for Japan.

WOULD BE DEFENDED

MORMON CHURCH WILL UPHOLD PRINCIPLE OF PLURAL MARRIAGE IF ATTACKED.

PRESIDENT SMITH TESTIFIES

WASHINGTON, MARCH 5.—

Interest in the investigation before the senate committee on privileges and elections of the protests against Senator Reed Smoot of Utah was unabated Friday, although most of the time was devoted to introduction of documents subscribed to as the law of the Mormon church. In that connection President Joseph F. Smith, who again was on the stand, testified that if the principle of plural marriage should be attacked it would be defended by the church.

Intense feeling was exhibited by President Smith against individuals, who, he said, had spied on the domestic and marital relations of the high officials of the Mormon church, and for that reason he had favored the passage of the Evans' bill to prevent prosecutions for polygamous cohabitation, unless complaints were entered by husband or wife against the other. The bill was passed, but vetoed by the governor of Utah.

It was brought out that all of Mr. Smith's predecessors, as presidents of the Mormon church, had been polygamists and that the man chosen to succeed him has more than one wife. Mr. Smith was asked which he would obey, the law of the land or revelations from God, if the two were in conflict. He said he might obey the revelation though it was not compulsory. He added: "I should not like to be put in a position where I would have to desert my children—I would not do that."

Mr. Smith said he and the church had obeyed the law against teaching polygamy, but admitted that personally he had violated the law by practice of polygamy. He admitted saying that the doctrine of plural marriage was a revelation from God to Joseph Smith, Jr., and to reject that would be equivalent to rejection of God himself.

THREE TRAINS STALLED.

Buried in Montana Snowdrifts for Two Weeks.

Lewiston, Mont., March 5.—Somewhere between here and Lombard, no one knows just where, three trains, one a freight and two mixed passenger, have been buried in snowdrifts for two weeks. For three weeks the railway to Lewiston, the famous "jaw bone" road of Central Montana, running 115 miles through Fergus county, has been completely blocked.

Snowdrifts with big gangs of men have been bucking the drifts night and day, but snow falls almost daily. It is probable the missing trains will not be reached until a thaw sets in. The two mixed trains carried about twenty passengers. The crew of the freight train managed to reach Harlowtown and procured provisions and it is believed the snow-bound passengers on the other trains have succeeded in reaching some of the other ranches, where they are being taken care of.

RETURNED TO ITS OWNERS.

Dominican Insurgents Release Clyde Line Tugboat.

San Domingo, March 5.—The United States training ship Hartford arrived here Wednesday from San Pedro de Macoris. She reports that the tugboat Burro, belonging to the Clyde line, of New York, which was recently seized and armed by the insurgents at San Pedro de Macoris, is again safe in the hands of her owners. The city is quiet.

The United States cruiser Columbia has arrived here. She will convey the Clyde line steamer Cherokee to San Pedro de Macoris.

The captain of the Hartford informed the insurgent leaders at Azua de Compostela that he could not allow forced loans and that the property of foreigners must be respected.

BOUNDARY LINE DEFINED.

South Dakota-Nebraska Controversy Finally Settled.

Lincoln, Neb., March 5.—The middle of the channel of the Missouri river is the boundary between South Dakota and Nebraska south of Union county, South Dakota. So declared the interstate boundary commission at a meeting here Friday. By the decision Nebraska gets about 5,000 acres from South Dakota and the latter state gains 1,500 acres from Nebraska. Reneging cut-off is in South Dakota, while Hall's Survey and Sioux Point are in Nebraska.

GOING TO SANTO DOMINGO.

Dewey and Loomis Will Investigate Conditions There.

Washington, March 5.—The Mayflower, with Admiral Dewey, Rear Admiral Taylor, several members of the general board of the navy, and Mr. Loomis, the assistant secretary of state, on board, has left Guantanamo for Santo Domingo, where they will make an unofficial investigation of conditions there.

THREE PERSONS KILLED.

Prairie Fire and Hurricane Also Damaged Property in Oklahoma.

Oklahoma City, Okla., March 5.—Three persons perished in Wednesday night's prairie fire and the financial loss by the fire already is estimated at $500,000.

The dead are H. N. Walter, near Moyer, overcome fighting fire; Dr. Harmon, near Lawton, burned to death in his stable; an unknown boy, near Lawton, body found burned on prairie.

Further reports of property loss by both fire and wind indicate that the first estimate was too low. The damage by wind extends over several counties in the Southwest. Hastings, Okla., Leger, Walter, Granite, Elk City, Cache, Temple, Snyder, Willow, Bloomington, Sayre and Mountain Park all report losses. The little town of Francis, near Mangum, was destroyed by fire.

Scores of people are suffering from burns and broken limbs. At Elk City three members of the family of M. S. Watts were seriously injured by the destruction of their home in the hurricane.

The district from which reports of damage come comprises an area 100 miles square and communication is interrupted because telegraph poles have been burned and wires blown down.

BARRINGTON ON THE STAND.

Claims His Real Name Is Frederick Augustus Barrington Seymour.

St. Louis, March 5.—After the examination of a number of witnesses for the defense in the trial of "Lord" Barrington for the alleged murder of James P. McCann, the defendant himself took the stand. "Lord" Barrington was apparently unwilling to divulge much information concerning his past, and it was only by rigid questioning that he made known that his real name is Frederick Augustus Barrington Seymour; that he had never posed as an English nobleman; that he was born in India and spent a number of years there, and that he was a war correspondent during the South African war. He denied emphatically that he was Burton, a noted English crook, or had gone under the alias of "Burgoyne." He said his mother's name was Barrington, but refused to explain how his last name was "Seymour." He declared there was enough disgrace now without bringing her into this, and he would tell nothing of her more than that she lives near Brighton, England. He said he had visited the United States twelve times but refused to give his vocation. He said his younger sister died in Washington, but he refused to give her name.

Barrington claimed he and McCann went to Bonfils to visit friends and were attacked in the dark and Barrington knocked senseless. When he got up McCann was not in sight and Barrington walked to St. Louis and told of the fight.

PROMINENT CITIZEN ARRESTED.

Serious Charge Against a South St. Paul Man.

St. Paul, March 5.—Following the suicide of William Smith, when he was about to be arrested on a charge of indecency, an investigation by prominent citizens of South St. Paul resulted in the arrest of George Newman, a leading citizen of the place, on a charge similar to that against Smith and in connection with the same series of offenses, namely, the moral corruption of girls of tender years.

Newman denied the charges. He is a married man, about fifty years of age.

There is considerable excitement in South St. Paul and for a time it seemed as though a crowd would storm the jail and lynch Newman, but wiser counsel prevailed. More arrests are anticipated.

AFTER LONG DEADLOCK.

Iowa Delegation Agrees on Candidate for Judge.

Washington, March 5.—Henry T. Rood of Cresco, Ia., has been selected by the Iowa delegation to be recommended for United States district judge for the Northern district of Iowa.

The two senators and five members of the house representing the Northern district have been balloting for three months on a candidate and no man had previously received a majority. The recommendation to the president will be unanimous.

MACEDONIANS TO RETALIATE.

Will Wreak Vengeance Upon Servians in Their Country.

Vienna, March 5.—It is reported from Belgrade, Serbia, that the government has ordered the arrest of a number of Macedonian revolutionists in consequence of an insurgent attempt to cross the frontier. The revolutionary leaders held a secret meeting and decided to retaliate on the Serbian population in Macedonia.

BODIES HORRIBLY MANGLED.

Three Men Instantly Killed by Explosion of a Boiler.

Towanda, Pa., March 5.—By the explosion of the boiler of a sawmill at Greenwood Friday, P. L. Brown, the proprietor, and his two helpers, Wallace Rice and Robert Compton, were instantly killed. The bodies were mangled horribly. The men were all married and leave families.

Vignaux Defeats Sutton.

Paris, March 5.—M. Vignaux, the French billiardist, defeated George Sutton, the American player, last night in the world championship match, 18-inch balkline, one shot in 500 points. Sutton had obtained only 377 when Vignaux went out.

New York, March 5.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade says trade and industry are still irregular, being active in favored sections, but hampered in others by the prolongation of winter weather, with its concomitants of delayed transportation, car shortages or floods. Southern trade advances, as heretofore, reveal sustained activity; southwestern reports show improvement, and Western dispatches are rather more optimistic, though the volume of business is not equal to a year ago in that part of the country, nor in the East, where wholesale and retail trade is backward. Among the industries reports indicate activity in iron and steel and prices of some grades of iron firmer, but the iron ore situation is not yet settled, the coke supply is insufficient and a soft coal strike overhangs Western industry generally. The agricultural situation on the whole is one of great strength and a record breaking acreage will go into cotton.

Railway earnings reflect the most unfavorable winter in many years reporting on a decrease in gross of 5 per cent. The feeling is still that good settled weather would help to repair the backwardness of general business and be particularly helpful to building and other lines of outdoor work, in which operations are practically at a standstill.

Argues in Favor of Revision.

Paris, March 5.—The speech of Attorney General Baudouin in favor of revision occupied the entire sitting of the criminal branch of the court of cassation Friday, upon the occasion of the second day's hearing of the Dreyfus revision case.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

No lives were lost in the recent heavy earthquake in Peru, and only slight property loss was sustained.

Robert Schulka, arrested at South St. Paul on the charge of stealing sheep, committed suicide in his cell, using a strap or belt.

Charles Neary of Milwaukee received a well-earned decision over Louie Long of Oakland, Cal., in a six-round bout at Milwaukee Friday night.

Fire Friday night destroyed the British-American hotel and three buildings adjoining at Halifax, N. S. Loss, $50,000. One fireman was killed.

Governor Dockery of Missouri granted a stay of execution until April 8 to James Brown, the Hawaiian, who was to have been hanged March 11 for murder.

Mail Carrier C. A. Harris was found by trappers in a snowdrift between Drummond and Two Harbors, Minn., so badly frozen that he may lose his hands and feet.

The Indiana Republican state committee Friday fixed the state convention for April 26 and 27 at Indianapolis. Resolutions were adopted endorsing President Roosevelt.

Philadelphia, March 5.—Ten nurses left this city Friday for Seattle en route for Japan, where they will render volunteer service on the battleship. The party is under the guidance of Dr. Anita Newton McGee.

WOULD BE DEFENDED

MORMON CHURCH WILL UPHOLD PRINCIPLE OF PLURAL MAR-RIAGE IF ATTACKED.

PRESIDENT SMITH TESTIFIES

SAYS ALL OF HIS PREDECESSORS HAD INDULGED IN THE PRAC-TICE OF POLYGAMY.

Washington, March 5.—Interest in the investigation before the senate committee on privileges and elections of the protests against Senator Reed Smoot of Utah was unabated Friday, although most of the time was devoted to introduction of documents subscribed to as the law of the Mormon church. In that connection President Joseph F. Smith, who again was on the stand, testified that if the principle of plural marriage should be attacked it would be defended by the church.

Intense feeling was exhibited by President Smith against individuals, who, he said, had spied on the domestic and marital relations of the high officials of the Mormon church, and for that reason he had favored the passage of the Evans bill to prevent prosecutions for polygamous cohabitation, unless complaints were entered by husband or wife against the other. The bill was passed, but vetoed by the governor of Utah.

It was brought out that all of Mr. Smith's predecessors, as presidents of the Mormon church, had been polygamists and that the man chosen to succeed him has more than one wife. Mr. Smith was asked which he would obey, the law of the land or revelations from God, if the two were in conflict. He said he might obey the revelation though it was not compulsory. He added: "I should not like to be put in a position where I would have to desert my children—I would not do that."

Mr. Smith said he and the church had obeyed the law against teaching polygamy, but admitted that personally he had violated the law by practice of polygamy. He admitted saying that the doctrine of plural marriage was a revelation from God to Joseph Smith, Jr., and to reject that would be equivalent to rejection of God himself.

THREE TRAINS STALLED.

Buried in Montana Snowdrifts for Two Weeks.

Lewiston, Mont., March 5.—Somewhere between here and Lombard, no one knows just where, three trains, one a freight and two mixed passenger, have been buried in snowdrifts for two weeks. For three weeks the railway to Lewiston, the famous "Jaw bone" road of Central Montana, running 115 miles through Fergus county, has been completely blocked. Snowplows with big gangs of men have been bucking the drifts night and day, but snow falls almost daily. It is probable the missing trains will not be reached until a thaw sets in. The two mixed trains carried about twenty passengers. The crew of the freight train managed to reach Harlowtown and procured provisions and it is believed the snow-bound passengers on the other trains have succeeded in reaching some of the other ranches, where they are being taken care of.

RETURNED TO ITS OWNERS.

Dominican Insurgents Release Clyde Line Tugboat.

San Domingo, March 5.—The United States training ship Hartford arrived here Wednesday from San Pedro de Macoris. She reports that the tugboat Burro, belonging to the Clyde line, of New York, which was recently seized and armed by the insurgents at San Pedro de Macoris, is again safe in the hands of her owners. The city is quiet.

The United States cruiser Columbia has arrived here. She will convey the Clyde line steamer Cherokee to San Pedro de Macoris.

The captain of the Hartford informed the insurgent leaders at Azua de Compostela that he could not allow forced loans and that the property of foreigners must be respected.

BOUNDARY LINE DEFINED.

South Dakota-Nebraska Controversy Finally Settled.

Lincoln, Neb., March 5.—The middle of the channel of the Missouri river is the boundary between South Dakota and Nebraska south of Union county, South Dakota. So declared the interstate boundary commission at a meeting here Friday. By the decision Nebraska gets about 5,000 acres from South Dakota and the latter state gains 1,500 acres from Nebraska. Rentgen cut-off is in South Dakota, while Hall's Survey and Sioux Point are in Nebraska.

GOING TO SANTO DOMINGO.

Dewey and Loomis Will Investigate Conditions There.

Washington, March 5.—The Mayflower, with Admiral Dewey, Rear Admiral Taylor, several members of the general board of the navy, and Mr. Loomis, the assistant secretary of state, on board, has left Guantanamo for Santo Domingo, where they will make an unofficial investigation of conditions there.

THREE PERSONS KILLED.

Prairie Fire and Hurricane Also Damaged Property in Oklahoma.

Oklahoma City, Okla., March 5.—Three persons perished in Wednesday night's prairie fire and the financial loss by the fire already is estimated at $500,000.

The dead are H. N. Walter, near Moyer, overcome fighting fire; Dr. Harmon, near Lawton, burned to death in his stable; an unknown boy, near Lawton, body found burned on prairie.

Further reports of property loss by both fire and wind indicate that the first estimate was too low. The damage by wind extends over several counties in the Southwest, Hastings, Olustee, Leger, Walter, Granite, Elk City, Cache, Temple, Snyder, Willow, Bloomington, Sayre and Mountain Park all report losses. The little town of Francis, near Mangum, was destroyed by fire.

Scores of people are suffering from burns and broken limbs. At Elk City three members of the family of M. S. Watts were seriously injured by the destruction of their home in the hurricane.

The district from which reports of damage come comprises an area 100 miles square and communication is interrupted because telegraph poles have been burned and wires blown down.

BARRINGTON ON THE STAND.

Claims His Real Name Is Frederick Augustus Barrington Seymour.

St. Louis, March 5.—After the examination of a number of witnesses for the defense in the trial of "Lord" Barrington for the alleged murder of James P. McCan, the defendant himself took the stand. "Lord" Barrington was apparently unwilling to divulge much information concerning his past, and it was only by rigid questioning that he made known that his real name is Frederick Augustus Barrington Seymour; that he had never posed as an English nobleman; that he was born in India and spent a number of years there, and that he was a war correspondent during the South African war. He denied emphatically that he was Burton, a noted English crook, or had gone under the alias of "Burgoyne." He said his mother's name was Barrington, but refused to explain how his last name was "Seymour." He declared there was enough disgrace now without bringing her into this, and he would tell nothing of her more than that she lives near Brighton, England. He said he had visited the United States twelve times but refused to give his vocation. He said his younger sister died in Washington, but he refused to give her name.

Barrington claimed he and McCan went to Bonfils to visit friends and were attacked in the dark and Barrington knocked senseless. When he got up McCan was not in sight and Barrington walked to St. Louis and told of the fight.

PROMINENT CITIZEN ARRESTED.

Serious Charge Against a South St. Paul Man.

St. Paul, March 5.—Following the suicide of William Smith, when he was about to be arrested on a charge of indecency, an investigation by prominent citizens of South St. Paul resulted in the arrest of George Newman, a leading citizen of the place, on a charge similar to that against Smith and in connection with the same series of offenses, namely, the moral corruption of girls of tender years.

Newman denied the charges. He is a married man, about fifty years of age.

There is considerable excitement in South St. Paul and for a time it seemed as though a crowd would storm the jail and lynch Newman, but wiser counsel prevailed. More arrests are anticipated.

AFTER LONG DEADLOCK.

Iowa Delegation Agrees on Candidate for Judge.

Washington, March 5.—Henry T. Reed of Cresco, Ia., has been selected by the Iowa delegation to be recommended for United States district judge for the Northern district of Iowa.

The two senators and five members of the house representing the Northern district have been balloting for three months on a candidate and no man had previously received a majority. The recommendation to the president will be unanimous.

MACEDONIANS TO RETALIATE.

Will Wreak Vengeance Upon Servians in Their Country.

Vienna, March 5.—It is reported from Belgrade, Servia, that the government has ordered the arrest of a number of Macedonian revolutionists in consequence of an insurgent attempt to cross the frontier. The revolutionary leaders held a secret meeting and decided to retaliate on the Servian population in Macedonia.

BODIES HORRIBLY MANGLED.

Three Men Instantly Killed by Explosion of a Boiler.

Towanda, Pa., March 5.—By the explosion of the boiler of a sawmill at Greenwood Friday, P. L. Brown, the proprietor, and his two helpers, Wallace Rice and Robert Compton, were instantly killed. The bodies were mangled horribly. The men were all married and leave families.

Vignaux Defeats Sutton.

Paris, March 5.—M. Vignaux, the French billiardist, defeated George Sutton, the American player, last night in the world championship match, 18-inch ballgame, one shot in 500 points. Sutton had obtained only 377 when Vignaux went out.

KILLS A SICK MAN.

Charles Cohagen Then Ends His Own Life.

Winchester, Ill., March 5.—Charles Cohagen late last night shot and killed T. H. Flynn, while the latter was ill in bed—at his home. Cohagen then went to the home of his father and shot himself in the temple, dying instantly. The two men are supposed to have had a previous quarrel.

Rozum Adjudged a Murderer.

Grafton, N. D., March 5.—In the district court here Friday Joseph Rozum was convicted of the murder of Louis Starman at Pisek, Walsh county, on the night of Jan. 27. Starman and Rozum had some difficulty. Rozum shot Starman, killing him instantly. He contended that the shooting was done in self-defense. The verdict was murder in the first degree, with the death penalty.

ATTACK PORT ARTHUR

JAPANESE WARSHIPS RENEW BOMBARDMENT OF THE RUSSIAN FORTRESS.

RUMOR OF HEAVY FIGHTING

BOTH SIDES SUFFER LOSS OF WARSHIPS IN A BATTLE OFF PORT ARTHUR.

TWO HUNDRED JAPS SAVED

BUT THE RUSSIANS ARE SAID TO HAVE GONE DOWN WITH THEIR WARSHIPS.

New York, March 5.—A special to the Herald from Tientsin says:

Port Arthur has been bombarded by Japanese ships at intervals for three days, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, first at fifteen kilometers distance from the forts and then at seven.

Cabling from Seoul, the correspondent of the New York Herald there says Horace N. Allen, United States minister to Korea, has thought it necessary to send a guard of marines to the American mines at Ulsan, belonging to J. Sloat Fassett, which were reported on Feb. 27 to have been seized by Russian soldiers. Accordingly, sixty men have been sent to the spot, which is 120 miles north of Peking.

London, March 5.—On the strength of a statement made by a missionary, the Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Chronicle sends in a doubtful report that twenty-eight Japanese sailors landed at Tientsin, saying that their vessel had sunk as the result of an engagement with Russian warships, which also went down. No Russians were saved, but 200 Japanese were rescued by Chinese junks. This action is reported to have occurred between Port Arthur and the Miaotao islands.

JAPS MINED PORT ARTHUR.

Are Now Trying to Send Men There to Blow It Up.

Paris, March 5.—Telegraphing from Harbin, a correspondent of the Matin says a special staff of officers has started to Lake Baikal to meet General Kuropatkin.

The central telegraph office here, the correspondent continues, will henceforth be closed to the public. The concentration of Chinese forces west of Mukden arouses suspicion, in spite of the repeated declarations of China's neutrality.

Cossacks are advancing into Korea, where the attitude of the natives toward them is very variable.

Colonel Tatsujiri and five other Japanese officers who were arrested in Korea have been taken to Liaoyang.

The people here believe that Port Arthur was mined a long time ago by the Japanese, who are now trying to send there a few men who know the place well to blow it up.

The Russian cruisers Bayan and Diana received only slight injuries during the recent engagements with the Japanese.

Japs Prepare for Immediate Advance to the North.

Vladivostok, March 5.—According to information received here, forty Japanese transports escorted by the entire naval fleet have been engaged in landing troops in Korea at Pusan and Chemulpo. It is estimated that fully 100,000 men have disembarked, and it is supposed that an immediate advance into Northern Korea is contemplated. From the fact that the Japanese fleet is thus employed it is felt that no immediate attack upon Vladivostok or Port Arthur will be made.

The landing of 2,500 Japanese at Songchin, Ulaksin Bay, on the East coast of Korea, has been confirmed. There is a remarkable rumor abroad that a quantity of transport material, together with ninety tons of salt fish, have been discovered laid away in secret places in the neighborhood of Nakalokov. They were apparently intended for use of the Japanese forces toward the end of the summer. The enrollment of volunteers is proceeding with enthusiasm at Vladivostok.

GENERAL PFLUG REPORTS.

All Is Quiet at Port Arthur and at Yinkow.

St. Petersburg, March 5.—The following dispatch, dated March 3, has been received from Major General Pflug, commanding the Russian forces at Port Arthur:

"All is quiet at Port Arthur and Yinkow.

"According to information given by eye witnesses a Japanese cruiser having three funnels lies near Chemulpo between islands, having recently sunk there."

A correspondent of the London Daily Mail on March 1 cabled from Chefoo that he saw a Japanese cruiser beached near Chemulpo.

LAMSDORFF TO RESIGN.

Russian Foreign Minister Reported to Be Anxious to Retire.

Paris, March 5.—Telegraphing from St. Petersburg, a correspondent of the Matin says that rumors that Foreign Minister Lamsdorff has repeated his request for retirement are persistently current in high circles.

M. Muraviev, the minister of justice, and M. Ivolosky, Russian minister to Denmark, are mentioned as possible successors to the foreign minister.

ATTITUDE OF GREAT BRITAIN.

Feeling in Russia Is Now Far More Tranquil Regarding It.

St. Petersburg, March 5.—There is high authority for the statement that Russian feeling is more tranquil regarding the attitude of Great Britain. The real reason of the visit to St. Petersburg of Count Benckendorff, Russian ambassador to Great Britain, while ostensibly to see his son off to the far East, was personally to assure his government of his belief that the suspicions harbored here concerning Japan's ally were ill founded and that Great Britain, although standing by the obligations of the Anglo-Japanese treaty, would not move unless compelled to do so by the entrance into affairs in the far East of a third power.

Count Benckendorff had a long interview with the czar as well as with Foreign Minister Lamsdorff and he convinced the authorities that Great Britain's was acting in good faith. He conveyed also Great Britain's assurance that the Anglo-Japanese treaty contained no secret clauses and that it was not directed especially against Russia. Its sole purpose being, according to the British authorities, the preservation of the balance of power in the far East which might be threatened by another coalition such as followed the Sino-Japanese war and which resulted in the exclusion of Great Britain in further international settlement of far Eastern questions.

The British and French governments have reached a thorough understanding by which they have pledged mutual noninterference, and Russia feels more secure against European complications.

The more moderate tone of the British and Russian press during the past few days is also regarded as evidence of better understanding between the two governments.

BATTLESHIPS BOTTLED UP.

Cannot Get Past the Retvizan at Port Arthur.

London, March 5.—Little change in the far Eastern situation is reported here. It is apparent that the Japanese are busily engaged in transporting their forces into Korea, and this work is being facilitated by the enforced inactivity of the navy.

According to the Sebastopol correspondent of the Daily Graphic, Admiral Skrydloff has learned privately from Port Arthur that the Russian battleship Reavizan lies in such a position as to block effectually the exit of battleships from the harbor, the passage being practicable only for cruisers.

The correspondent adds that Russia's new battleships now building on the Baltic will not be ready for active commission before the end of August.

The Japanese official who has charge of Japan's financial and commercial interests in England declares that his government foresaw the possibility of coal being declared contraband of war, and that it has been collecting large stores of Welsh steam coal for years, so that today it has a supply sufficient for the needs of the navy for years to come.

The recent Japanese elections resulted rather favorably to the ministerialists, without greatly altering the strength of political parties there. The returns are approximately, 130 constitutionalists, 96 progressives, 70 without party, and 83 members from small groups.

ONLY A QUESTION OF TIME.

Before Vladivostok Squadron Will Receive Attention of Japs.

Tokio, March 5.—It is evident that several vessels laden with coal, provisions and other contraband articles have recently effected the passage of Tsugaru strait and succeeded in reaching Vladivostok. Their exact number and names are unknown, but it is stated that they included British, Norwegian and German vessels. Two of them are said to have carried cargoes of Australian coal. Japan evidently refrained from making a special effort to prevent their passage and it is not improbable that she calmly permitted the delivery of the contraband, calculating that they would prove useful to herself at a later stage of the campaign. The Vladivostok squadron continues inactive, though it has an ample supply of coal and the ships are in good condition. It has evidently been instructed by the Russian government to remain close to Vladivostok batteries in preference to risking a fight in the open seas. It is declared to be only a question of time before the squadron will receive the attention of the Japanese navy.

RUSSIAN TROOPS RETREAT.

Those South of Anju Hustle Back to the Yalu River.

London, March 5.—In a dispatch from Tokio the correspondent of the Times says: "Russians recently were conveyed to Possiet Bay from Vladivostok, and crossed the Tumen river southward of Ungkwin and Helyong."

"The Russian troops who hitherto have been south of Anju have retired toward the Yalu river."

"The martial law regulations published at Vladivostok Feb. 9 betray great solicitude with regard to provisions."

"The objections of France to Japan's obtaining the Seoul-Wiju railroad concession are met by the plea that the railroad is required for strategic purposes."

TO AWAIT BALTIC SQUADRON.

Admiral Wierenius Will Keep His Warships in the Mediterranean.

Port Said, Egypt, March 5.—Admiral Wierenius' squadron of Russian warships will leave these waters today for Cadiz, Spain, leaving the torpedo boat destroyers at Algiers. They will remain in the Mediterranean until June, awaiting the arrival of the Baltic squadron.

INSURRECTION IN ALBANIA.

Two Districts in Open Revolt and Turks Are Paralyzed.

London, March 5.—In a dispatch from Salonica, European Turkey, a correspondent of the Daily Mail says a fresh insurrection has broken out in Albania. The districts of Mitrovitza and Ipek are in open revolt and the Turkish authorities appear to be paralyzed.

STILL SOMEWHAT IRREGULAR.

Trade and Industry Hampered by Bad Weather.

New York, March 5.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade says trade and industry are still irregular, being active in favored sections, but hampered in others by the prolongation of winter weather, with its concomitants of delayed transportation, car shortages or floods. ### MUSIC AND DRAMA.

ALBERTA GALLATIN IN "GHOSTS."

Alberta Gallatin who is to appear here at the Brainerd opera house next Saturday, March 12, in Henrik Ibsen's masterpiece, "Ghosts," is a Virginian by birth. Her father was a celebrated Confederate general, Albert Gallatin Jenkins, whose name is still held in loving remembrance among the veterans of the Shenandoah valley. General Jenkins was a warm personal friend of General Fitz-Hugh Lee. Miss Gallatin's grandfather was the Hon. J. B. Bowlin, the ambassador to Paraguay, who effected the famous treaty between this country and Spanish South America in the 50's. The complication arose from the murder of an American sailor and led to very strained relations. Judge Bowlin was sent by President Buchanan with an American fleet to enforce our demand for an indemnity. By his clever diplomacy war was averted. The well known wit and raconteur, Sam Ward, was Judge Bowlin's private secretary on this mission. Miss Gallatin has been favorably seen as the leading support of such well known stars as Mrs. Fiske, T. W. Keene, Richard Mansfield and Joseph Jefferson, and is recognized as one of the best "Rosalinds" on the stage. She will appear here at the head of her own company of fine artists.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY ENTERTAINMENT.

March 17, St. Patrick's day, the usual excellent entertainment will be given at the Brainerd opera house by Rev. D. W. Lynch, of St. Francis church. These entertainments are always looked forward to with interest, and this year it is thought that the program is even more replete than in former years. The Hon. J. C. Nethaway, of Stillwater, who is considered one of the very best orators in the state, will deliver an address and this will be the principal number on the program. Then there will be musical numbers by Messrs. S. F. Alderman, A. L. Mattes, C. E. Wilson, Gene and Frank McCarthy, Miss Jennie Mysen and Graham's orchestra. Besides all this flow of good things a Grecian drill or pantomime will be given by nine young ladies, which will be an excellent feature of the program. The tickets are $1, 75, 50 and 25 cents.

Cable Matter Decided.

Washington, March 5.—It is stated on trustworthy authority that neither Japan nor any other foreign power will be allowed to lay a cable to the island of Guam now or at any future time. Whenever a cable line is constructed between Guam and the mainland it will be under the authority and jurisdiction of the United States.

Von Waldersee Very Ill.

Berlin, March 5.—There is no improvement, according to dispatches from Hanover, in the condition of Count von Waldersee. Professor Orth of Berlin and Professor Eppstein of Göttingen have diagnosed the disease as intestinal inflammation. The count is very weak and the worst is feared.

Grant, whose home is at Peoria, Ill., but who is visiting at Starbuck, that he is sick in a hospital in the latter city, but it is thought that his case is not serious.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

ALBERTA GALLATIN IN "GHOSTS."

Alberta Gallatin who is to appear here at the Brainerd opera house next Saturday, March 12, in Henrik Ibsen's masterpiece, "Ghosts," is a Virginian by birth. Her father was a celebrated Confederate general, Albert Gallatin Jenkins, whose name is still held in loving remembrance among the veterans of the Shenandoah valley. General Jenkins was a warm personal friend of General Fitz-Hugh Lee. Miss Gallatin's grandfather was the Hon. J. B. Bowlin, the ambassador to Paraguay, who effected the famous treaty between this country and Spanish South America in the 50's. The complication arose from the murder of an American sailor and led to very strained relations. Judge Bowlin was sent by President Buchanan with an American fleet to enforce our demand for an indemnity. By his clever diplomacy war was averted. The well known wit and raconteur, Sam Ward, was Judge Bowlin's private secretary on this mission. Miss Gallatin has been favorably seen as the leading support of such well known stars as Mrs. Fiske, T. W. Keene, Richard Mansfield and Joseph Jefferson, and is recognized as one of the best "Rosalinds" on the stage. She will appear here at the head of her own company of fine artists.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY ENTERTAINMENT.

March 17, St. Patrick's day, the usual excellent entertainment will be given at the Brainerd opera house by Rev. D. W. Lynch, of St. Francis church. These entertainments are always looked forward to with interest, and this year it is thought that the program is even more replete than in former years. The Hon. J. C. Nethaway, of Stillwater, who is considered one of the very best orators in the state, will deliver an address and this will be the principal number on the program. Then there will be musical numbers by Messrs. S. F. Alderman, A. L. Mattes, C. E. Wilson, Gene and Frank McCarthy, Miss Jennie Mysen and Graham's orchestra. Besides all this flow of good things a Grecian drill or pantomime will be given by nine young ladies, which will be an excellent feature of the program. The tickets are $1, 75, 50 and 25 cents.

Cable Matter Decided.

Washington, March 5.—It is stated on trustworthy authority that neither Japan nor any other foreign power will be allowed to lay a cable to the island of Guam now or at any future time. Whenever a cable line is constructed between Guam and the mainland it will be under the authority and jurisdiction of the United States.

Von Waldersee Very Ill.

Berlin, March 5.—There is no improvement, according to dispatches from Hanover, in the condition of Count von Waldersee. Professor Orth of Berlin and Professor Eppstein of Göttingen have diagnosed the disease as intestinal inflammation. The count is very weak and the worst is feared.

FORTUNE FROM CARTHAGENA IS PROBABLY A MERE MYTH

Expose One of the Biggest Swindles in Country in Connection
With Koop Letters

J. H. KOOP WOULD NOT BITE
Similar Letters Written to Others
in this City, Mrs. F. E. Smith
Receiving One.

As a supplemental bit of history in connection with the story published a few days ago wherein J. H. Koop, at one time postmaster of Brainerd, ex-Mayor and for many years a prominent resident and business man of Brainerd, was depicted as having fallen heir to a large fortune, left him through the death recently of a prisoner who had been sentenced to serve sixteen years in the dungeons of a Spanish Castle at Carthage, it may be interesting to know that the romantic story, based as it was in a series of letters which passed between Mr. Koop and a supposed relative in Spain, now seems to be a myth and that the letters received here were a mere and a delusion, sent out, it is thought, by swindlers who have adopted a plan of shrewdness and cunning seldom equalled in this or any other country.

Everything in connection with the story seemed problematical, but there were those who looked askance and could not allow themselves to be led to the belief that there was anything to the report. The expose came today, then, after reading the accounts of Mr. Koop's sudden heirdom, Mrs. F. E. Smith of this city, wife of the late W. J. Smith, at one time a well known merchant of this city, exhibited a letter dated from the same place in Spain as the Koop letters and containing the same vivid account in general of the imprisonment of her relative, who was also scintillating about the welfare of his fifteen-year-old daughter and had made arrangements to send her to this country to be taken care of, and that with her would come a fortune. In detail the conditions were somewhat changed but there is such a striking similarity between this letter and the ones received by Mr. Koop that there is every indication that the whole thing is a fake and that a swindle of gigantic proportions has been carried on for a series of years, and there is no telling what the harvest has been to the promoters. The letter is penned in fairly good English, but as in the Koop letters the work appears to be that of a foreigner.

Mrs. Smith's letter was dated July 31, 1922, which was about a year and a half ago. She at that time did not know what to do about the matter so went to Judge McClenahan, of this city, and advised her to write to the U. S. consul at Carthage.

She did not do this, but wrote back to the man who signed the letter, Antonio Calvet. She never received a reply, presumably because she did not comply with his requests, and from that day till she heard of the Koop letters she never thought about the matter. In order to give the similarity between the letters, showing probably that a fraud being carried on the letter written to and received by Mrs. Smith is given in full as follows, and it tells the tale:

Castle por of Ayora, 31-7-1902.
MR. W. E. SMITH,
DEAR RELATIVE:
Having not the honour to know you, I refer to the references which my dear friend, Mary Smith, your relative gave me, who in mentioning the individuals of our family praised the honesty and good qualities that distinguish you, I dress myself to you for the first time and perhaps the last one considering the grave state of my health explaining my sad position and requesting your protection for my only daughter, a niece 15 years old, who I keep as a prisoner in the college of Santa Elena. As I am strictly watched by my enemies I hope you will relate to nobody the most insignificant detail of this letter, being a secretary and treasurer of Martinez Campos in the last war of Cuba, and deserving the confidence of an illustrious gentleman, I have placed my capital in public funds transactions so that I might make a brilliant fortune for my daughter, whom I ever loved with passion since her mother died. Now my fortune would have been happy had my protector continued at the end of the campaign, for no sooner was he replaced by the General Weyler that my misfortune presented itself and could not succeed in making him come to Spain, and not being in my power to see Cuba ruled by an adversary, I joined the rebellion in behalf of the republic, but as we were victims of the greatest treason I was obliged to migrate in English ground, taking with me my money valued at 36,000 pounds sterling.

After having resided in London some time I received the sad news my wife died leaving my daughter in despair and without help in this sad situation. I found myself in the necessity of coming to Spain to help my daughter bring her in my company to your country.

Before starting, considering as imprudent to take along with me this respectable sum of money, I decided to place it in the London bank, against a special private contract and only as a deposit, as it appears in the security document payable to the bearer that the bank gave me as a guarantee, which document I have hidden in a concealed hollow of my portmanteau, very well made, which the keenest eyes cannot find out. When very satisfied that the money was in security I started for Spain to help my daughter, where I was discovered by the militia authorities, brought immediately before the government of Carthage and condemned to 18 years confinement in military seclusion, destined me to undergo my condemnation at this castle where I bitterly suffer, deprived of all communication from the outside world even with my daughter.

When I was sentenced my equipage and the portmanteau have been confiscated. This embargo was made as a guarantee to pay the costs of my process. I am only visited by the chaplain of the castle, who, besides being my confessor, is my best friend. I trust in your discretion and induces me to the noble wish of pretending your protection should you be kind enough to be support of my daughter, trying to make her happy as perhaps I may not be able to see her again.

My daughter will possess a fortune in money of £36,000, although my equipage are confiscated in Carthage and nobody knows that dissembled secret but you. If you are good to be the protector of my daughter you will let me know by return post and paying the costs of my process, the embargo will be raised and then I shall send the respectable reverend gentleman with my daughter to your house, also the equipage. We will act then accordingly for getting my capital will be granted to my daughter Emily in my testament, and a part besides for you and your family as a just reward.

As it is prohibited to me to receive any direct communication I expect you will send your reply under two envelopes, the one inside the other, and the one outside to the name of the servant of my protector, the chaplain of this castle, who is our confidential man.

This is his address,
Spain,
Sor. Pascual Guach
(Por. Almanse-Albacete)
Ayora.

I trust to your discretion the future of my daughter, meantime I remain yours faithfully and a relative,
ANTONIO CALVET.

It never worried Mrs. Smith a great deal but she wrote the letter to the gallant Carthaginian and never heard from him. She did not send the money to raise his embargo, and this is where she was wise, it is thought.

Mr. Koop never thought much of the matter and perhaps never would have given it a thought had it not been for the fact that a brother died at one time at sea and the dead man's wife, who was known to have one daughter, had never been heard of, although a constant search had been made. It was quite probable then when Mr. Koop received the letter that the man who was in prison in Spain was his dead brother's wife's husband.

It is also learned now that a similar letter was received by a gentleman at Little Falls whose name could not be learned, and all these facts point to the theory that it is a big game of swindle from beginning to end and a fake, pure and simple.

The following is taken from the Little Falls Transcript:

"The Minneapolis Tribune of Thursday has a very pretty and romantic story about J. H. Koop of Brainerd falling heir to a handsome legacy left by the husband of Koop's brother's widow. The story is to the effect that this man who married the widow of Koop's long lost brother was in prison in Carthage, Spain, and that before his death made a will leaving $150,000 to his step-daughter, Koop's niece, and naming Mr. Koop as the guardian of the girl, whose mother had died. It was also stipulated in the will that a quarter of the legacy should go to Mr. Koop. The letter to Mr. Koop closed saying that a priest had started for America with the girl and that she would make her home in Brainerd.

"A Little Falls gentleman who saw the article in the Tribune informs us that a Morrison county man received a similar letter a short time ago but paid no attention to it further than turning it over to his attorney. The attorney wrote to parties in Washington relative to the matter and was informed that the whole thing was a fraud. Mr. Koop's letter may not be the same thing but it bears the same ear-marks."

MRS. ALVINA WILLIAMS DEAD

Wife of James Williams Died at their Home
on the South Side Yesterday Afternoon--Rather Sad Case.

Mrs. Alvina Williams, who gained considerable notoriety in this city a little over a year ago, on account of her rather strenuous courtship with a young man working in the shops, who died when the wedding approached, died yesterday afternoon at her home on the south side, consumption being the cause of her demise. She was formerly Alvina Kronke and the young girl was jilted about the city for a time led in the belief that the young man would soon become her husband. When he skipped out she seemed determined to marry someone and was willing to take the first man that came along. She met James Williams one evening, a proposition of marriage was made and in less than fifteen minutes they were united in matrimony.

Several months ago she gave birth to a child and since that time she has not been well and failed rapidly until death relieved her of all earthly sufferings yesterday afternoon.

HOT AFTER MERRY

Sheriff of Clay County Realizes that He Will Lose $600 Unless He Gets the Man Back Into Jail.

Sheriff Bayer, of Clay county, left this morning for St. Paul, where he will make application to Governor Van Sant for requisition papers on Governor White of this state for the extradition of C. F. Merry, the insurance man who escaped from a deputy sheriff in Moorhead last week and was later arrested at Dickinson in this state. It is understood that Merry will contest the proceedings and make a strong fight against being taken back to Minnesota. Merry is charged with collecting money for an insurance company not authorized to do business in the state of Minnesota. There are two charges against him. The offense is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine or jail imprisonment, and it is thought that he would enter a plea of guilty, at the outside, he would not get more than a fine of $100 in each case. Sheriff Bayer, if he fails to return Merry to Minnesota, is stuck for $600 bond, and he is making a determined fight for the return of the man. Fargo Forum.

TO BE LARGEST IN CAPACITY

Of Any Shops on the Entire N. P.
System—Construction of Lidgerwood Cars.

There is a report current that the Northern Pacific will enlarge its shops at South Tacoma, making them the largest in capacity on the entire N. P. system. What truth there is to the report cannot be stated at this time, but as the information comes from General Manager Cooper it ought to be reasonably authentic.

The St. Paul Globe says:

The Northern Pacific, it is announced, has completed plans for making its South Tacoma car shops the largest in capacity on its entire system. General Manager Thomas Cooper, who is at Tacoma, has given out a statement in which he says that the company has found that it can construct cars at the western end of its line as cheap as it can purchase them in the East, and that it has decided to make large additions to the South Tacoma plant in order to handle the work.

"We will erect a new boiler shop at the plant and make a number of other additions which are absolutely needed on account of the increase in the amount of work that has to be done at the plant," said Mr. Cooper.

The construction of 200 Lidgerwood cars at the South Tacoma plant has been ordered. These will be of 80,000 pounds capacity, and are combination work train, coal, and lumber cars. Orders have been given to push construction work on them, and it is expected that they will be completed within two months. The material, all of which except the axles will be procured on the coast, has been ordered. After the Lidgerwood cars have been finished, it is announced, 100 refrigerator cars and cabooses will be constructed.

QUEEN BEES.

Wonderful Provision of Nature by Which They Are Made.

A marvelous phase of bee life is the power which they possess to raise queens, or mother bees, from eggs or very young brood that would in the ordinary course produce workers, which are neuters, or undeveloped females.

If by any chance a queen is killed or lost the whole colony would perish were it not for this wonderful provision of nature. Much perturbed at first at their loss, the bees after some hours settle down and deliberately build a pear shaped structure known as a queen cell. This is much larger than an ordinary cell, rough, irregular and strong.

In this the selected eggs, or larvae, are lavishly supplied with "royal jelly," which is highly stimulative and in which the baby queen literally floats during her period of growth. The result is that certain organs and ovaries which remain dormant in a worker bee are perfected, and the new queen hatches out in about fifteen days, or six days sooner than the workers.—London Answers.

Expose One of the Biggest Swindles in Country in Connection With Koop Letters

J. H. KOOP WOULD NOT BITE Similar Letters Written to Others in this City, Mrs. F. E. Smith Receiving One.

As a supplemental bit of history in connection with the story published a few days ago wherein J. H. Koop, at one time postmaster of Brainerd, ex-Mayor and for many years a prominent resident and business man of Brainerd, was depicted as having fallen heir to a large fortune, left him through the death recently of a prisoner who had been sentenced to serve sixteen years in the dungeons of a Spanish Castle at Carthage, it may be interesting to know that the romantic story, based as it was in a series of letters which passed between Mr. Koop and a supposed relative in Spain, now seems to be a myth and that the letters received here were a mere delusion, sent out, it is thought, by swindlers who have adopted a plan of shrewdness and cunning seldom equalled in this or any other country.

Everything in connection with the story seemed problematical, but there were those who looked askance and could not allow themselves to be led to believe that there was anything to be reported. The expose came today, then, after reading the accounts of Mr. Koop's sudden heirdom, Mrs. F. E. Smith of this city, wife of the late W. J. Smith, at one time a well known merchant of this city, exhibited a letter dated from the same place in Spain as the Koop letters and containing the same vivid account in general of the imprisonment of her relative, who was also sojourning about the welfare of his fifteen-year-old daughter and had made arrangements to send her to this country to be taken care of, and that with her would come a fortune. In detail the conditions were somewhat changed but there is such a striking similarity between this letter and the ones received by Mr. Koop that there is every indication that the whole thing is a fake and that a swindle of gigantic proportions has been carried on for a series of years, and there is no telling what the harvest has been to the promoters. The letter is penned in fairly good English, but as in the Koop letters the work appears to be that of a foreigner.

Mrs. Smith's letter was dated July 31, 1902, which was about a year and a half ago. She at that time did not know what to do about the matter so went to Judge McClenahan, of this city, and advised her to write to the U. S. consul at Carthage. She did not do this, but wrote back the man who signed the letter, Antonio Calvet. She never received a reply, presumably because she did not comply with his requests, and from that day till she heard of the Koop letters she never thought about the matter. In order to give the similarity between the letters, showing probably that a fraud being carried on the letter written to and received by Mrs. Smith is given in full as follows, and it tells the tale:

Castle por of Ayora, 31-7-1902.
MR. W. E. SMITH,
MY DEAR RELATIVE:
Having not the honour to know you, I refer to the references which my dear wife, Mary Smith, your relative gave me, who in mentioning the individuals of your family praised the honesty and good qualities that distinguish you, I address myself to you for the first time and perhaps the last one considering the grave state of my health explaining to my sad position and requesting your protection for my only daughter, my niece 15 years old, who I keep as a prisoner in the college of Santa Elena. As I am strictly watched by my enemies I hope you will relate to nobody the most insignificant detail of this letter, being a secretary and treasurer of the Martinez Campos in the last war of Cuba, and deserving the confidence of such an illustrious gentleman, I have placed my capital in public funds transactions so that I might make a brilliant position for my daughter, whom I loved with passion since her mother died. Now my fortune would have been happy had my protector continued at the end of the campaign, for no sooner was he replaced by the General Weyler than my misfortune presented itself and could not succeed in making him come to Spain, and not being in my power to see Cuba ruled by an adversary, I joined the rebellion in behalf of the republic, but as we were victims of the greatest treason I was obliged to migrate in English ground, taking with me my money valued at 36,000 pounds sterling.

After having resided in London some time I received the sad news my wife died leaving my daughter in a state of despair and without help in this sad situation. I found myself in the necessity of coming to Spain to help my daughter bring her to my company to your country.

When I was sentenced my equipage and the portmanteau have been confiscated. This embargo was made as a guarantee to pay the costs of my process. I am only visited by the chaplain of the castle, who, besides being my confessor, is my best friend. I trust in your discretion and induces me to the noble wish of pretending your protection should you be kind enough to be support of my daughter, trying to make her happy as perhaps I may not be able to see her again.

My daughter will possess a fortune in money of £36,000, although my equipage are confiscated in Carthage and nobody knows that I am in secret but you. If you are good to be the protector of my daughter you will let me know by return post and paying the costs of my process, the embargo will be raised and then I shall send the respectable reverend gentleman with my daughter to your house, also the equipage. We will act then accordingly for getting my capital will be granted to my daughter Emily in my testament, and a part besides for you and your family as a just reward.

As it is prohibited to me to receive any direct communication I expect you will send your reply under two envelopes, the one inside the other, and the one outside to the name of the servant of my protector, the chaplain of this castle, who is our confidential man. This is his address,
Spain,
Sor. Pascual Guach
(Por. Almanse-Albacete)
Ayora.

I trust to your discretion the future of my daughter, meantime I remain yours faithfully and a relative,
ANTONIO CALVET.

It never worried Mrs. Smith a great deal but she wrote the letter to the gallant Carthaginian and never heard from him. She did not send the money to raise his embargo, and this is where she was wise, it is thought.

Mr. Koop never thought much of the matter and perhaps never would have given it a thought had it not been for the fact that a brother died at one time at sea and the dead man's wife, who was known to have one daughter, had never been heard of, although a constant search had been made. It was quite probable then when Mr. Koop received the letter that the man who was in prison in Spain was his dead brother's wife's husband.

It is also learned now that a similar letter was received by a gentleman at Little Falls whose name could not be learned, and all these facts point to the theory that it is a big game of swindle from beginning to end and a fake, pure and simple.

The following is taken from the Little Falls Transcript:

"The Minneapolis Tribune of Thursday has a very pretty and romantic story about J. H. Koop of Brainerd falling heir to a handsome legacy left by the husband of Koop's brother's widow. The story is to the effect that this man who married the widow of Koop's long lost brother was in prison in Carthage, Spain, and that before his death made a will leaving $150,000 to his step-daughter, Koop's niece, and naming Mr. Koop as the guardian of the girl, whose mother had died. It was also stipulated in the will that a quarter of the legacy should go to Mr. Koop. The letter to Mr. Koop closed saying that a priest had started for America with the girl and that she would make her home in Brainerd.

"A Little Falls gentleman who saw the article in the Tribune informs us that a Morrison county man received a similar letter a short time ago but paid no attention to it further than turning it over to his attorney. The attorney wrote to parties in Washington relative to the matter and was informed that the whole thing was a fraud. Mr. Koop's letter may not be the same thing but it bears the same ear-marks."

MRS. ALVINA WILLIAMS DEAD

Wife of James Williams Died at their Home on the South Side Yesterday Afternoon—Rather Sad Case.

Mrs. Alvina Williams, who gained considerable notoriety in this city a little over a year ago, on account of her rather strenuous courtship with a young man working in the shops, who fled when the wedding approached, died yesterday afternoon at her home on the south side, consumption being the cause of her demise. She was formerly Alvina Kronke and the young girl was jilted about the city for a time led in the belief that the young man would soon become her husband. When he skipped out she seemed determined to marry someone and was willing to take the first man that came along. She met James Williams one evening, a proposition of marriage was made and in less than fifteen minutes they were united in matrimony.

Several months ago she gave birth to a child and since that time she has not been well and failed rapidly until death relieved her of all earthly sufferings yesterday afternoon.

HOT AFTER MERRY

Sheriff of Clay County Realizes that He Will Lose $600 Unless He Gets the Man Back Into Jail.

Sheriff Bayer, of Clay county, left this morning for St. Paul, where he will make application to Governor Van Sant for requisition papers on Governor White of this state for the extradition of C. F. Merry, the insurance man who escaped from a deputy sheriff in Moorhead last week and was later arrested at Dickinson in this state. It is understood that Merry will contest the proceedings and make a strong fight against being taken back to Minnesota. Merry is charged with collecting money for an insurance company not authorized to do business in the state of Minnesota. There are two charges against him. The offense is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine or jail imprisonment, and it is thought that he would enter a plea of guilty, at the outside, he would not get more than a fine of $100 in each case. Sheriff Bayer, if he fails to return Merry to Minnesota, is stuck for $600 bond, and he is making a determined fight for the return of the man. Fargo Forum.

Northern Pacific Reported to be Contemplating Such a Move in Near Future.

TO BE LARGEST IN CAPACITY

Of Any Shops on the Entire N. P. System—Construction of Lidgerwood Cars.

There is a report current that the Northern Pacific will enlarge its shops at South Tacoma, making them the largest in capacity on the entire N. P. system. What truth there is to the report cannot be stated at this time, but as the information comes from General Manager Cooper it ought to be reasonably authentic.

The St. Paul Globe says:

The Northern Pacific, it is announced, has completed plans for making its South Tacoma car shops the largest in capacity on its entire system. General Manager Thomas Cooper, who is at Tacoma, has given out a statement in which he says that the company has found that it can construct cars at the western end of its line as cheap as it can purchase them in the East, and that it has decided to make large additions to the South Tacoma plant in order to handle the work.

"We will erect a new boiler shop at the plant and make a number of other additions which are absolutely needed on account of the increase in the amount of work that has to be done at the plant," said Mr. Cooper.

The construction of 200 Lidgerwood cars at the South Tacoma plant has been ordered. These will be of 80,000 pounds capacity, and are combination work train, coal, and lumber cars. Orders have been given to push construction work on them, and it is expected that they will be completed within two months. The material, all of which except the axles will be procured on the coast, has been ordered. After the Lidgerwood cars have been finished, it is announced, 100 refrigerator cars and cabooses will be constructed.

QUEEN BEES.

Wonderful Provision of Nature by Which They Are Made.

A marvelous phase of bee life is the power which they possess to raise queens, or mother bees, from eggs or very young brood that would in the ordinary course produce workers, which are neuters, or undeveloped females.

If by any chance a queen is killed or lost the whole colony would perish were it not for this wonderful provision of nature. Much perturbed at first at their loss, the bees after some hours settle down and deliberately build a pear shaped structure known as a queen cell. This is much larger than an ordinary cell, rough, irregular and strong.

In this the selected eggs, or larvae, are lavishly supplied with "royal jelly," which is highly stimulative and in which the baby queen literally floats during her period of growth. The result is that certain organs and ovaries which remain dormant in a worker bee are perfected, and the new queen hatches out in about fifteen days, or six days sooner than the workers.—London Answers.

FORTUNE FROM CARTHAGENA
IS PROBABLY A MERE MYTH

Expose One of the Biggest Swindles in Country in Connection
With Koop Letters

J. H. KOOP WOULD NOT BITE

in this City, Mrs. F. E. Smith
Receiving One.

As a supplemental bit of history in connection with the story published a few days ago wherein J. H. Koop, at one time postmaster of Brainerd, ex-Mayor and for many years a prominent resident and business man of Brainerd, was depicted as having fallen heir to a large fortune, left him through the death recently of a prisoner who had been sentenced to serve sixteen years in the dungeons of a Spanish Castle at Carthage, it may be interesting to know that the romantic story, based as it was in a series of letters which passed between Mr. Koop and a supposed relative in Spain, now seems to be a myth and that the letters received here were a mere and a delusion, sent out, it is thought, by swindlers who have adopted plan prolific of shrewdness and cunning seldom equalled in this or any other country.

Everything in connection with the story seemed problematical, but there were those who looked askance and could not allow themselves to be led to the belief that there was anything to be reported. The expose came today, then, after reading the accounts of Mr. Koop's sudden heirdom, Mrs. F. E. Smith of this city, wife of the late W. L. Smith, at one time a well known merchant of this city, exhibited a letter dated from the same place in Spain as the Koop letters and containing the same vivid account in general of the imprisonment of her relative, who was also sojourning at the welfare of his fifteen-year-old daughter and had made arrangements to send her to this country to be taken care of, and that with her could come a fortune. In detail the conditions were somewhat changed but there is such a striking similarity between this letter and the ones received by Mr. Koop that there is every indication that the whole thing is a fake and that a swindle of gigantic proportions has been carried on for a series of years, and there is no telling what the harvest has been to the promoters.

The letter is penned in fairly good English, but as in the Koop letters the work appears to be that of a foreigner. Mrs. Smith's letter was dated July 31, 1902, which was about a year and a half ago. She at that time did not know what to do about the matter so went to Judge McClenahan, of this city, and advised her to write to the U. S. consul at Carthage.

She did not do this, but wrote back to the man who signed the letter, Antonio Calvet. She never received a reply, presumably because she did not comply with his requests, and from that day until she heard of the Koop letters she never thought about the matter. In order to give the similarity between the letters, showing probably that a fraud being carried on the letter written to and received by Mrs. Smith is given in the following, and it tells the tale:

Castle por of Ayora, 31-7-1902.
MR. W. E. SMITH,
MY DEAR RELATIVE:
Having not the honour to know you, I refer to the references which my dear wife, Mary Smith, your relative gave me, who in mentioning the individuals of your family praised the honesty and good qualities that distinguish you, I address myself to you for the first time and perhaps the last one considering the grave state of my health explaining to my sad position and requesting your protection for my only daughter, my niece 15 years old, who I keep as a prisoner in the college of Santa Elena. As I am strictly watched by my enemies I hope you will relate to nobody the most insignificant detail of this letter, being a secretary and treasurer of Martinez Campos in the last war of Cuba, and deserving the confidence of an illustrious gentleman, I have placed my capital in public funds transactions so that I might make a brilliant fortune for my daughter, whom I ever loved with passion since her mother died. Now my fortune would have been happy had my protector continued at the end of the campaign, for no sooner was he replaced by the General Weyler at my misfortune presented itself and could not succeed in making him come to Spain, and not being in my power to see Cuba ruled by an adversary, I joined the rebellion in behalf of the republic, but as we were victims of the greatest treason I was obliged to flee in English ground, taking with me my money valued at 36,000 pounds sterling.

After having resided in London some time I received the sad news my wife had died leaving my daughter in despair and without help in this sad situation. I found myself in the necessity of coming to Spain to help my daughter bring her in my company to your country.

Before starting, considering as imprudent to take along with me this respectable sum of money, I decided to place it in the London bank, against an special private contract and only as a deposit, as it appears in the security document payable to the bearer that the bank gave me as a guarantee, which document I have hidden in a concealed hollow of my portmanteau, very well made, which the keenest eyes cannot find out. When very satisfied that the money was in security I started for Spain to help my daughter, where I was discovered by the militia authorities, brought immediately before the government of Carthage and condemned to 18 years confinement in military seclusion, destined me to undergo my condemnation at this castle where I bitterly suffer, deprived of all communication from the outside world even with my daughter.

When I was sentenced my equipage and the portmanteau have been confiscated. This embargo was made as a guarantee to pay the costs of my process. I am only visited by the chaplain of the castle, who, besides being my confessor, is my best friend. I trust in your discretion and induces me to the noble wish of pretending your protection should you be kind enough to be support of my daughter, trying to make her happy as perhaps I may not be able to see her again.

My daughter will possess a fortune in money of £36,000, although my equipage are confiscated in Carthage and nobody knows that dissembled secret but you. If you are good to be the protector of my daughter you will let me know by return post and paying the costs of my process, the embargo will be raised and then I shall send the respectable and reverend gentleman with my daughter to your house, also the equipage. We will act then accordingly for getting my capital will be granted to my daughter Emily in my testament, and a part besides for you and your family as a just reward.

As it is prohibited to me to receive any direct communication I expect you will send your reply under two envelopes, the one inside the other, and the one outside to the name of the servant of my protector, the chaplain of this castle, who is our confidential man.

This is his address,
Spain,
Sor. Pascual Guach
(Por. Almanse-Albacete)
Ayora.

I trust to your discretion the future of my daughter, meantime I remain yours faithfully and a relative,
ANTONIO CALVET.

It never worried Mrs. Smith a great deal but she wrote the letter to the gallant Carthaginian and never heard from him. She did not send the money to raise his embargo, and this is where she was wise, it is thought.

Mr. Koop never thought much of the matter and perhaps never would have given it a thought had it not been for the fact that a brother died at one time at sea and the dead man's wife, who was known to have one daughter, had never been heard of, although a constant search had been made. It was quite probable then when Mr. Koop received the letter that the man who was in prison in Spain was his dead brother's wife's husband.

It is also learned now that a similar letter was received by a gentleman at Little Falls whose name could not be learned, and all these facts point to the theory that it is a big game of swindle from beginning to end and a fake, pure and simple.

The following is taken from the Little Falls Transcript:
"The Minneapolis Tribune of Thursday has a very pretty and romantic story about J. H. Koop of Brainerd falling heir to a handsome legacy left by the husband of Koop's brother's widow. The story is to the effect that this man who married the widow of Koop's long lost brother was in prison in Carthage, Spain, and that before his death made a will leaving $150,000 to his step-daughter, Koop's niece, and naming Mr. Koop as the guardian of the girl, whose mother had died. It was also stipulated in the will that a quarter of the legacy should go to Mr. Koop. The letter to Mr. Koop closed saying that a priest had started for America with the girl and that she would make her home in Brainerd.

"A Little Falls gentleman who saw the article in the Tribune informs us that a Morrison county man received a similar letter a short time ago but paid no attention to it further than turning it over to his attorney. The attorney wrote to parties in Washington relative to the matter and was informed that the whole thing was a fraud. Mr. Koop's letter may not be the same thing but it bears the same ear-marks."

Don't Neglect Yourself.
1468 Second Street,
LOUISVILLE, KY., April 14, 1903.
I have been weak and sickly for the past four years,
caused by irregularity and carelessness regarding the laws of health, but about five months ago my condition
became very serious. I had severe backache and suffered a constant dull pain in my head. I spent weary, painful days, and miserable, restless nights. The doctor told me that I must have patience.
His medicine did not, however, give me even temporary relief and as I had been told of the curative qualities of Wine of Cardui I decided to try it.
I found that it relieved me of pain. As my general health improved my other troubles were gradually diminished and after five weeks' use of the Wine
of Cardui I was once more a well and happy
woman.

WINE OF CARDUI
Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow, banishes headaches, backaches and bearing-down pains. Severe headaches, bearing-down pains, indigestion, loss of appetite and nervousness are symptoms of female weakness and should be given prompt attention. If you are troubled with menstrual irregularities do not let them run on. They will certainly grow into dangerous and chronic troubles. Get a bottle of Wine of Cardui and begin treatment at once.
All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

Remedy For a Cold.
"We desire a remedy for a cold,"
says the Baltimore News, "and for the information of those who may make suggestions we mention that we have already taken the following: Quinine,
rock and rye, lemon hot, hot toddy,
Irish moss tea, beef tea in quantities,
hot milk, mustard plaster (externally),
mustard plaster (internally), hot water
bag, steam bath, hot iron, X's mixture, bronchial troches, hot baths ad
infinitum, flaxseed, nansen, all the ten minute remedies, Stickem's corn cure,
Bump's sure cure for hog cholera,
Dover's powders and two different
prescriptions of unknown character."
"We will be genuinely obliged for a long list of other things to take."
"N. B.—We have also taken a fresh cold."

Gordon at Gettysburg.
Major Robert Stiles, author of "Four Years Under Marse Robert," thus describes General Gordon at Gettysburg:
"His face was radiant, his figure erect,
mounted on a splendid ebony charger,
with gleaming eyes and proud arched neck. The rider fairly stood in his stirrups and, bareheaded, waved both
hands, while his sonorous voice rolled
out such exhortations as only he knew how to make to soldiers. Thus they charged, with the great black charger
joyful in the midst of the flashing
muskets."

Bespoken.
"No, thank you," said Miss De Mure.
"I don't care to meet any new young men."
"My!" exclaimed Miss Gaddie. "You
are select all of a sudden!"
"No," replied Miss De Mure glancing
dreamily at her new ring. "I've merely
been selected all of a sudden."— Philadelphia Press.

Received Tamulantly.
"He says he created quite a furore
with his new play," remarked the first
actor.
"Huh!" snorted the other. "He means
he created quite a few roars—'Gilt off
the stage!' 'Shoot him!' etc."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Aged Woman Murdered.
Albuquerque, N. M., March 5.—Mrs.
Annie Boone, seventy years old, was found dead in bed at her home here
Friday. She had been murdered by being struck over the head with a piece of gas pipe. She had recently received $100, and it is believed the object of the murderer was to secure this money, which is missing.

CONGRESSMAN MARTIN WOULD
INQUIRE INTO WORKINGS OF
THE BEEF CONCERNS.
WANTS TO KNOW THE CAUSE
SEEKS TO FIND REASON FOR DIF-FERENCE IN COST OF LIVE
AND DRESSED MEATS.

Washington, March 5.—The house
Friday had under consideration the Indian appropriation bill, the reading of
which for the purpose of amendment
was pending on adjournment. During the general debate on the bill Mr.
Martin, a Republican member from South Dakota, addressed the house on
his resolution directing the secretary
of commerce and labor to investigate
the causes of the differences which exist between the cost of live and dressed meat. He prefaced his statements with a high tribute to Attorney General Knox and by saying that he
was not one who went into hysteria
on hearing the word trust. But while
this was true, he believed that if a monopoly exists in one of the big food
products, it should be investigated by
the department of commerce and labor. He asserted that so far as the rights of the producer and consumer
are concerned they are even worse than before the injunction was secured
against the beef concerns, and in support of this statement cited the experiences of stockmen in the market.
He opposed a repeal of the forfeiture
clause in the Sherman anti-trust law.
Mr. Hedges (Rep., Ia.) entertained
the house with a few humorous thrusts
in opposition to the "Iowa idea."
Mr. Robinson (Dem., Ind.), in closing the general debate on the Indian bill, declared that a monopoly exists in the coal business in the Indian Territory and should be investigated.
The controverted features in the Indian bill went over for a day.
The house confirmed the right of
Mr. Sims (Dem., Ky.) to his seat. A Republican had contested it.

FOR NAVAL TRAINING STATION.
Selection of a Site Starts a Controversy in the Senate.
Washington, March 5.—Practically
the entire time of the senate Friday
was given to consideration of the question of the selection of a site for
a naval training station on the Great Lakes. Most of the senators from states bordering on the lakes participated in the discussion. The controversy arose over an effort to secure
an amendment to the committee
amendment a provision authorizing
the appointment of a new commission
to select a site. This amendment was offered by Mr. Quarles and its origin
was due to the fact that a former commission had given preference to Lake Bluff, in Illinois. The principal speakers were Messrs. Quarles and Spooner, who presented the advantages
of Racine, Wis.; Mr. Hopkins, who spoke for Lake Bluff, and Mr. Foraker,
whose contentions were in the interest
of Put-in-Bay, Ohio. The committee
amendment was so modified as to make it apply to all the Great Lakes,
and not alone to Lake Michigan, but
Mr. Quarles' amendment was not acted
on and will be considered today.

RIVER SLOWLY RISING.
Susquehanna Nearly Twenty Feet
Above Low Water Mark.
Wilkesbarre, Pa., March 5.—At 1
o'clock this morning the Susquehanna
was 19.2 feet above low water mark
and still rising slowly. The ice here
is still intact, but at Plymouth, four miles below, it moved for a few minutes about midnight. The ice broke
at Tunkhannock at 2:45 Friday afternoon and last night began to pile up
at Coxton, twelve miles above this city.
The water behind this gorge rose
rapidly and for a time threatened to flood the great Coxton yards of the Lehigh Valley railroad. At midnight the water began to recede, although the
gorge is still intact.
A telephone message from Bloomsburg says the water there is 23 feet
above low water mark and still rising
slowly. The ice between Bloomsburg
and West Nanticoke for forty miles
is floating and will pass out safely if
the gorges at Catawissa and Kipp's
Run give way.

IOWA BANKER SUICIDES.
President of Failed Institution Shoots
Himself.
Sioux City, Ia., March 5.—Frank L.
Larue, president of the Cornings State
Savings bank, now in the hands of a receiver, shot and killed himself Friday afternoon. The savings bank
closed its doors Feb. 15 and its affairs
were found to be badly tangled. The strain and worry of the weeks preceding the failure had affected Larue
both physically and mentally, and he had been confined to the house for several days.

Severe Earthquake.
Albuquerque, N. M., March 5.—News
has been received here from Socor,
thirty miles south, that a severe earthquake occurred Thursday. The shock
caused the river to overflow and flooded
the lower part of the town. Considerable damage to property resulted. No
loss of life is reported.

Hundreds of Sheep Drowned.
Frement, Neb., March 5.—The most serious property loss resulting from
the overflow of the Platte river was
the drowning of 1,000 sheep belonging
to N. H. Schriener. He succeeded in getting 4,000 of the herd into the pens,
but the others perished in the floods.

Will Boycott American Goods.
Paris, March 5.—The Petit Temps,
St. Petersburg correspondent says that the merchants of Moscow have decided to boycott all American goods until such time as American hostility to Russia ceases.

More Riots.
Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by ut-

HEAT AND MOTION.
Various Theories About the Connection Between These Agents.

The idea that heat is a kind of motion
was entertained by Plato, who makes Socrates say: "For heat and fire which generate and sustain other things are themselves begotten by impact and friction, but this is motion. Are not
these the origin of fire?"
Bacon defined heat to be "a motion
acting in its strife upon the smaller
particles of bodies." Newton, Boyle
and Hooke considered heat to be motion. Locke described it as "a very brisk agitation of the insensible parts
of the objects which produces to us
that sensation from whence we denomi-
nate the object hot; so what in our sensation is heat in the object is nothing but motion. This appears by the way heat is produced, for we see that the rubbing of a brass nail upon a
board will make it very hot."

Many scientific men have held heat
to be matter, and in spite of Rumford's
vigorous exposition of its fallacy this material theory held its ground until a comparatively recent date, when Sir H.
Davy took up the subject and by his experiments proved conclusively that this view is unsound.

Don't Neglect Yourself.
1408 Second Street,
Louisville, Ky., April 14, 1903.
I have been weak and sickly for the past four years,
caused by irregularity and carelessness regarding the
became very serious. I had severe backache and suffered
a constant dull pain in my head. I spent weary, painful
days, and miserable, restless nights. The doctor told me
that I must have patience.
His medicine did not, however, give me even temporary
relief and as I had been told of the curative qualities of Wine of Cardui I decided to try it.
I found that it relieved me of pain. As my general
health improved my other troubles were gradually di-
of Cardui I was once more a well and happy
woman.

WINE OF CARDUI
Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow, banishes headaches,
backaches and bearing-down pains. Severe headaches, bearing-down
pains, indigestion, loss of appetite and nervousness are symptoms of female weakness and should be given prompt attention. If you are troubled with menstrual irregularities do not let them run on. They will certainly grow into dangerous and chronic troubles. Get a bottle of Wine of Cardui and begin treatment at once.
All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

Remedy For a Cold.
"We desire a remedy for a cold,"
says the Baltimore News, "and for the
information of those who may make
already taken the following: Quinine,
rock and rye, lemon hot, hot toddy,
Irish moss tea, beef tea in quantities,
hot milk, mustard plaster (externally),
mustard plaster (internally), hot water
bag, steam bath, hot iron, X's mixture, bronchial troches, hot baths ad
infinitum, flaxseed, nausea, all the ten
minute remedies, Stickem's corn cure,
Bump's sure cure for hog cholera,
Dover's powders and two different
prescriptions of unknown character.
"We will be genuinely obliged for a long list of other things to take.
"N. B.—We have also taken a fresh
cold."

Gordon at Gettysburg.
Major Robert Stiles, author of "Four Years Under Marse Robert," thus describes General Gordon at Gettysburg:
"His face was radiant, his figure erect,
mounted on a splendid ebony charger,
with gleaming eyes and proud arched
neck. The rider fairly stood in his
stirrups and, bareheaded, waved both
hands, while his sonorous voice rolled
out such exhortations as only he knew how to make to soldiers. Thus they
charged, with the great black charger
joyful in the midst of the flashing
muskets."

Bespoken.
"No, thank you," said Miss De Mure.
"I don't care to meet any new young
men."
"My!" exclaimed Miss Gaddie. "You
are select all of a sudden!"
"No," replied Miss De Mure glancing
dreamily at her new ring. "I've merely
Philadelphia Press.

Received Tumultuously.
"He says he created quite a furore
actor.
"Huh!" snorted the other. "He means
he created quite a few roars—'Git off
the stage! 'Shoot him!' etc."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Unruffled Serenity.

smile! I think he must have a very sweet temper."

Aged Woman Murdered.
Albuquerque, N. M., March 5.—Mrs.
Annie Boone, seventy years old, was
found dead in bed at her home here
Friday. She had been murdered by
being struck over the head with a piece of gas pipe. She had recently
received $100, and it is believed the subject of the murderer was to secure
this money, which is missing.

CONGRESSMAN MARTIN WOULD
INQUIRE INTO WORKINGS OF
THE BEEF CONCERNS.
AND DRESSED MEATS.

Washington, March 5.—The house
Friday had under consideration the Indian appropriation bill, the reading of
which for the purpose of amendment
was pending on adjournment. During the general debate on the bill Mr.
Martin, a Republican member from South Dakota, addressed the house on
his resolution directing the secretary
of commerce and labor to investigate
the causes of the differences which
exist between the cost of live and
dressed meat. He prefaced his statements with a high tribute to Attorney General Knox and by saying that he
was not one who went into hysteria
on hearing the word trust. But while
monopoly exists in one of the big food
products, it should be investigated by
the department of commerce and la-
bor. He asserted that so far as the rights of the producer and consumer
are concerned they are even worse than before the injunction was secured
against the beef concerns, and in support of this statement cited the experiences of stockmen in the market.
He opposed a repeal of the forfeiture
clause in the Sherman anti-trust law.
Mr. Hedges (Rep., Ia.) entertained
the house with a few humorous thrusts
Mr. Robinson (Dem., Ind.), in closing the general debate on the Indian
bill, declared that a monopoly exists in
the coal business in the Indian Territory and should be investigated.
The controverted features in the Indian bill went over for a day.
The house confirmed the right of
Mr. Sims (Dem., Ky.) to his seat. A
Republican had contested it.

FOR NAVAL TRAINING STATION.
Selection of a Site Starts a Controversy in the Senate.
Washington, March 5.—Practically
the entire time of the senate Friday
was given to consideration of the question of the selection of a site for
a naval training station on the Great Lakes. Most of the senators from
states bordering on the lakes participated in the discussion. The controversy arose over an effort to secure as
an amendment to the committee
amendment a provision authorizing
the appointment of a new commission
to select a site. This amendment was offered by Mr. Quarles and its origin
was due to the fact that a former
Lake Bluff, in Illinois. The principal speakers were Messrs. Quarles and
of Racine, Wis.; Mr. Hopkins, who spoke for Lake Bluff, and Mr. Foraker,
whose contentions were in the interest
of Put-in-Bay, Ohio. The committee
amendment was so modified as to
make it apply to all the Great Lakes,
and not alone to Lake Michigan, but
Mr. Quarles' amendment was not acted
on and will be considered today.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., March 5.—At 1
o'clock this morning the Susquehanna
was 19.2 feet above low water mark
and still rising slowly. The ice here
is still intact, but at Plymouth, four
miles below, it moved for a few minutes about midnight. The ice broke
at Tunkhannock at 2:45 Friday afternoon and last night began to pile up at Coxton, twelve miles above this city.
The water behind this gorge rose
rapidly and for a time threatened to
flood the great Coxton yards of the Lehigh Valley railroad. At midnight the
water began to recede, although the
gorge is still intact.
A telephone message from Blooms-
burg says the water there is 23 feet
above low water mark and still rising
slowly. The ice between Bloomsburg
and West Nanticoke for forty miles
is floating and will pass out safely if
the gorges at Catawissa and Kipp's
Run give way.

IOWA BANKER SUICIDES.
President of Failed Institution Shoots
Himself.
Sioux City, Ia., March 5.—Frank L.
Larue, president of the Cornish State
Savings bank, now in the hands of a
receiver, shot and killed himself Friday afternoon. The savings bank
closed its doors Feb. 15 and its affairs
were found to be badly tangled. The
strain and worry of the weeks preceding the failure had affected Larue
had been confined to the house for several days.

Severe Earthquake.
Albuquerque, N. M., March 5.—News
has been received here from Socor,
thirty miles south, that a severe earthquake occurred Thursday. The shock
caused the river to overflow and flooded
the lower part of the town. Considerable damage to property resulted. No
loss of life is reported.
Hundreds of Sheep Drowned.
Fremont, Neb., March 5.—The most serious property loss resulting from
the overflow of the Platte river was
the drowning of 1,600 sheep belonging
to N. H. Schriener. He succeeded in getting 4,000 of the herd into the pens,
but the others perished in the fields.
Will Boycott American Goods.
Paris, March 5.—The Petit Temps,
St. Petersburg correspondent says that
the merchants of Moscow have decided
to boycott all American goods until
such time as American hostility to Russia ceases.

HEAT AND MOTION.
Various Theories About the Connection Between These Agents.
The idea that heat is a kind of motion
was entertained by Plato, who makes Socrates say: "For heat and fire which
generate and sustain other things are
themselves begotten by impact and friction, but this is motion. Are not
these the origin of fire?"
Bacon defined heat to be "a motion
acting in its strife upon the smaller
particles of bodies." Newton, Boyle
and Hooke considered heat to be motion. Locke described it as "a very blist agitation of the insensible parts
of the objects which produces to us
that sensation from whence we denomi-
nate the object hot; so what in our sensation is heat in the object is nothing but motion. This appears by the
the rubbing of a brass nail upon a
board will make it very hot."

Many scientific men have held heat
to be matter, and in spite of Rumford's
vigorous exposition of its fallacy this
material theory held its ground until a
comparatively recent date, when Sir H.
Davy took up the subject and by his experiments proved conclusively that
this view is unsound.

I have been weak and sickly for the past four years,
caused by irregularity and carelessness regarding the
laws of health, but about five months ago my condition
became very serious. I had severe backache and suffered
a constant dull pain in my head. I spent weary, painful
days, and miserable, restless nights. The doctor told me
that I must have patience.
His medicine did not, however, give me even temporary
relief and as I had been told of the curative qualities of Wine of Cardui I decided to try it.
I found that it relieved me of pain. As my general
health improved my other troubles were gradually diminished and after five weeks' use of the Wine
of Cardui I was once more a well and happy
woman.

WINE OF CARDUI
Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow, banishes headaches,
backaches and bearing-down pains. Severe headaches, bearing-down
pains, indigestion, loss of appetite and nervousness are symptoms of female weakness and should be given prompt attention. If you are troubled with menstrual irregularities do not let them run on. They will certainly grow into dangerous and chronic troubles. Get a bottle of Wine of Cardui and begin treatment at once.
All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

Remedy For a Cold.
"We desire a remedy for a cold,"
says the Baltimore News, "and for the
information of those who may make
already taken the following: Quinine,
rock and rye, lemon hot, hot toddy,
Irish moss tea, beef tea in quantities,
hot milk, mustard plaster (externally),
mustard plaster (internally), hot water
bag, steam bath, hot iron, X's mixture, bronchial troches, hot baths ad
infinitum, flaxseed, nausea, all the ten minute remedies, Stieken's corn cure,
Bump's sure cure for hog cholera,
Dover's powders and two different
prescriptions of unknown character."
"We will be genuinely obliged for a long list of other things to take."
"N. B.—We have also taken a fresh
cold."

Gordon at Gettysburg.
Major Robert Stiles, author of "Four Years Under Marse Robert," thus describes General Gordon at Gettysburg:
"His face was radiant, his figure erect,
mounted on a splendid ebony charger,
with gleaming eyes and proud arched
neck. The rider fairly stood in his
stirrups and, bareheaded, waved both
hands, while his sonorous voice rolled
out such exhortations as only he knew how to make to soldiers. Thus they
charged, with the great black charger
joyful in the midst of the flashing
muskets."

Bespoken.
"No, thank you," said Miss De Mure.
"I don't care to meet any new young
men."
"My!" exclaimed Miss Gaddie. "You
"No," replied Miss De Mure glancing
dreamily at her new ring. "I've merely
been selected all of a sudden."— Philadelphia Press.

Received Tumultuously.
"He says he created quite a furore
actor.
"Huh!" snorted the other. "He means
he created quite a few roars—'Git off
the stage!' 'Shoot him!' etc."—Philadel-

Albuquerque, N. M., March 5.—Mrs.
Annie Boone, seventy years old, was
found dead in bed at her home here
Friday. She had been murdered by
being struck over the head with a piece of gas pipe. She had recently
received $100, and it is believed the subject of the murder was to secure
this money, which is missing.

CONGRESSMAN MARTIN WOULD
INQUIRE INTO WORKINGS OF
THE BEEF CONCERNS.
AND DRESSED MEATS.

Washington, March 5.—The house
Friday had under consideration the Indian appropriation bill, the reading of
which for the purpose of amendment
was pending on adjournment. During the general debate on the bill Mr.
Martin, a Republican member from South Dakota, addressed the house on
his resolution directing the secretary
of commerce and labor to investigate
the causes of the differences which
exist between the cost of live and
dressed meat. He prefaced his statements with a high tribute to Attorney General Knox and by saying that he
was not one who went into hysteria
on hearing the word trust. But while
this was true, he believed that if a
monopoly exists in one of the big food
products, it should be investigated by the department of commerce and labor.
He asserted that so far as the rights of the producer and consumer are concerned they are even worse than
before the injunction was secured
against the beef concerns, and in support of this statement cited the experiences of stockmen in the market.
He opposed a repeal of the forfeiture
clause in the Sherman anti-trust law.
Mr. Hedges (Rep., Ia.) entertained
the house with a few humorous thrusts
Mr. Robinson (Dem., Ind.), in closing
the general debate on the Indian bill, declared that a monopoly exists in the beef business in the Indian Territory and should be investigated.
The controverted features in the Indian bill went over for a day.
The house confirmed the right of
Mr. Sims (Dem., Ky.) to his seat. A
Republican had contested it.

FOR NAVAL TRAINING STATION.
Selection of a Site Starts a Controversy in the Senate.

Washington, March 5.—Practically
the entire time of the senate Friday
was given to consideration of the question of the selection of a site for
a naval training station on the Great Lakes. Most of the senators from
states bordering on the lakes participated in the discussion. The controversy arose over an effort to secure
an amendment to the committee
amendment of a new commission to select a site. This amendment was offered by Mr. Quarles and its origin
was due to the fact that a former
commission had given preference to Lake Bluff, in Illinois. The principal speakers were Messrs. Quarles and Spoonor, who presented the advantages of Racine, Wis.; Mr. Hopkins, who spoke for Lake Bluff, and Mr. Foraker,
whose contentions were in the interest
of Put-in-Bay, Ohio. The committee
amendment was so modified as to
make it apply to all the Great Lakes,
and not alone to Lake Michigan, but
Mr. Quarles' amendment was not acted
on and will be considered today.

Above Low Water Mark.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., March 5.—At 1
o'clock this morning the Susquehanna
was 19.2 feet above low water mark
and still rising slowly. The ice here
is still intact, but at Plymouth, four
miles below, it moved for a few minutes about midnight. The ice broke at Tankhannock at 2:45 Friday afternoon and last night began to pile up
at Coxton, twelve miles above this city.
The water behind this gorge rose
rapidly and for a time threatened to
flood the great Coxton yards of the Lehigh Valley railroad. At midnight the
water began to recede, although the
gorge is still intact.
A telephone message from Blooms-
burg says the water there is 23 feet
above low water mark and still rising
slowly. The ice between Bloomsburg
and West Nanticoke for forty miles
is floating and will pass out safely if
the gorges at Catawissa and Kipp's
Run give way.

IOWA BANKER SUICIDES.
President of Failed Institution Shoots
Himself.

Siox City, Ia., March 5.—Frank L.
Larue, president of the Cornish State
Savings bank, now in the hands of a receiver, shot and killed himself Friday afternoon. The savings bank
closed its doors Feb. 15 and its affairs
were found to be badly tangled. The
strain and worry of the weeks preceding the failure had affected Larue
had been confined to the house for
several days.

Albuquerque, N. M., March 5.—News
has been received here from Socor,
thirty miles south, that a severe earthquake occurred Thursday. The shock caused the river to overflow and flood
the lower part of the town. Considerable damage to property resulted. No
loss of life is reported.

Hundreds of Sheep Drowned.
Fremont, Neb., March 5.—The most serious property loss resulting from
the overflow of the Platte river was
the drowning of 1,600 sheep belonging
to N. H. Schriener. He succeeded in getting 4,000 of the herd into the pens,
but the others perished in the floods.

Paris, March 5.—The Petit Temps
St. Petersburg correspondent says that
the merchants of Moscow have decided
to boycott all American goods until
such time as American hostility to Russia ceases.

HEAT AND MOTION.
Various Theories About the Connection Between These Agents.
The idea that heat is a kind of motion
was entertained by Plato, who makes Socrates say: "For heat and fire which
generate and sustain other things are
themselves begotten by impact and friction, but this is motion. Are not
these the origin of fire?"
Bacon defined heat to be "a motion
acting in its strife upon the smaller
particles of bodies." Newton, Boyle
and Hooke considered heat to be motion.
Locke described it as "a very brisk agitation of the insensible parts
of the objects which produces to us
that sensation from whence we denomi-
nate the object hot; so what in our sensation is heat in the object is nothing but motion. This appears by the way heat is produced, for we see that the rubbing of a brass nail upon a board will make it very hot."
Many scientific men have held heat
to be matter, and in spite of Rumford's
vigorous exposition of its fallacy this
material theory held its ground until a
comparatively recent date, when Sir H.
Davy took up the subject and by his
experiments proved conclusively that
this view is unsound.

Alberta Gallatin
and company of artists in Ibsen's Remarkable Play
"Ghosts"

This play has probably received more favorable newspaper comment, and been more widely discussed than any other play of the past two seasons.
"Ghosts" is the most symmetrical, mental,
brilliant dramatic performance of the season, which is saying all too little for so magnificent an expression of complete art.—Chicago Daily News.
Seats on sale Friday at Dunn's.
